Orbit Group announces two new Non-Executive Board Directors

24 January 2024

Orbit Group Limited (the “Group”) announces the appointment of Emma Kenny and Priya Khullar, as Non-Executive Directors to its Board.

An experienced Non-Executive Director, Emma currently holds Non-Executive board positions at Cottsway Housing Association, VR Entertainment, Rematch and Innovate UK Loans, as well as bringing with her 25 years of experience in senior positions at global blue-chips in brand building, omni-channel marketing, customer journey and digital-led insights.

Priya brings a solid background in senior leadership roles focusing on customer experience, digital and data analytics, including positions with major UK and international organisations such as the Home Office, Conversity, BT, Pfizer and Sky, as well as a Non-Executive Director role with London Travelwatch.

David Weaver, Orbit Group Chair, commented: “We are delighted to welcome Emma and Priya to our Board. They are both very experienced board members with extensive expertise in customer experience, as well as sharing our commitment to making a social difference. I have no doubt they will both prove a real asset in helping us to continue to our drive to provide affordable, good quality, safe homes that our customers love.”

Emma and Priya join the Board with immediate effect.
